IMPORTANT NOTICE TO PARENTS

This Contract includes clauses that appear in bold text. These clauses may limit the risk or liability of the School Providers and/or others and/ or create risk or liability for the Parents and/or require the Parents to indemnify the School Providers and/or others and/or serve as an acknowledgment by the Parents of a fact and/or place certain particular obligations on the Parents and/or the Learners. The bank account(s) in which Deposits are retained may be selected by the School Providers, it being agreed by the Parents that there is no obligation on the part of the School Providers to select bank accounts which will provide for interest to accrue on any credit balance in such accounts.
- 3.16. The Parents agree that each Deposit is to serve as security for any and all amounts owing by them from time-to-time to the School Providers in terms of this Contract and, to the extent necessary, hereby cede all their rights in such Deposit to the School Providers as such security. Subject to the remaining provisions of this clause 3, each Deposit may be retained and utilised by the School Providers in the same proportion as the School Fees are from time-to-time split between them. - 3.19. The Parents understand and agree that their failure to timeously and fully pay any School Fees and/or any other amounts due by them in terms of this Contract is a material breach by them of this Contract (any such overdue School Fees and/or other amount being the "Overdue Amount"), and without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of the School Providers arising as a result of such a breach by the Parents (whether in law or as may be provided for in this Contract or otherwise), the school providers shall be entitled –
- 3.19.1. to charge interest ('Default Interest') at a rate equal to 1 (one) percentage point above the published prime overdraft rate of Nedbank Limited from time-to-time, or if a lower maximum rate is prescribed by law in respect of that amount, then at that lower maximum rate, on the Overdue Amount from its due date for payment until its date of actual payment; and/or

- 3.19.4. unless provided differently by court order, to withhold any progress reports or cards, transfer cards or any other results relating to a Learner's performance in any respect until such time as the Overdue Amount plus any Default Interest and legal costs have been paid in full; and/or

- 3.19.5. unless provided differently by court order, to suspend such Learner's attendance at the School until such time as the Overdue Amount plus any Default Interest has been paid in full; and/or
- 3.19.6. unless provided differently by court order or legislation (and subject to any applicable provisions of the Schools Act), to terminate the admission of the Learner as a learner at the School by giving written notice to that effect to the Parents and such termination shall be effective from the end of the School Term in which such notice has been given, provided that if this Contract is so terminated, the Parents will after the conclusion of that School Term be provided with any progress reports or cards, transfer cards or any other results relating to a Learner performance.

6. SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION OF ADMISSION

- 6.1. The admission of the Learner as a learner at the School may be terminated in accordance with any one or more of the following sub-paragraphs, subject however always to any relevant provisions of the Schools Act –
- 6.1.1. by the Parents giving at least a complete School Term's notice to that effect to the School Head (in order to comply with this requirement, the notice must be given before the commencement of the last School Term during which the Learner is to attend the School);
 - 6.1.2. by the School Providers giving at least a complete School Term's notice to that effect to the Parents (in order to comply with this requirement, the notice must be given before the commencement of the last School Term during which the Learner is to attend the School);

 - 6.1.4. if the School Head is reasonably of the opinion that the Education Services provided by the Education Provider can no longer provide adequately for any special educational needs of a Learner(if any), the School Providers will be entitled to terminate the admission of such Learner as a learner at the School by giving at least 30 (thirty) days' notice to that effect to the Parents, after which the admission of the Learner as a learner at the School will come to an end on the last day of the School Term during which such notice period expires;
 - 6.1.5. in the circumstances envisaged in clause 3.19.5;
 - 6.1.6. if the Parents or either of them breach this Contract in any other way (other than failing to pay any amount as referred to in clause 3.19.5, it being understood that such clause deals with such failure of not paying) and fail to remedy such breach within a period of thirty 30 (thirty) days after being given notice by or on behalf of the School Providers requiring the breach to be remedied, the School Providers will be entitled to terminate the admission of such Learner as a learner at the School by giving notice to that effect to the Parents, and such termination will take effect on the date on which such notice is given; and

The right to terminate the admission of a Learner in terms of either clause 6.1.1 or 6.1.2 is a right which is not dependent on there being any good cause justifying such termination, it being agreed and understood that such termination may be effected by the required notice being given entirely within the discretion of the Parents (in the case of clause 6.1.1) and entirely within the discretion of School (in the case of clause 6.1.2).
